ESCAPE NEW TRIALS Abe Majors and Frank Connors, life con-victs in the State prison, will not have to stand trial in the District court on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon. These convicts had a preliminary hearing charge of assaulting guards at of the prison outbreak last fall mony was offered in their defetestimony was offered in their defense, but at the close of the State's case, Attorney Weber for Connors and F. N. McGurrin for Majors filed a motion for the dismissal of the conplaints on the ground that the State statutes of 1885 provide that no convict serving a life sentence can be tried on any charge the penalty for which is imprisonment. Judge Diehl took the case under advisament and yesterday gave a decision granting the motion of the defense.

a decision granting the motion of the defense.

Samuel Bjorklund, manager of the Kenyon hotel barber shop, who was arrested Monday on the charge of violating the Sunday labor ordinance, when arraigned before Judge Diehl yesterday morning walved the residing of the complaint and pleaded guilty to the charge. The passing of Sentence was deferred until Friday at 10 a. m.

of Sentence was deferred until Friday at 10 a. m.

James Sorenson, charged with house-breaking, was pronounced not guilty by Judge Diehl, his trial having taken place several days ago and his case taken under advisement until yesterday.

Rodney Husbands, Walter Edgar, George Bates and Thomas Cosgrove, the boys charged with burglarizing the Fifth Ward Co-op, and postoffice sub-station, and who were recently brought back from California by officers, were arraigned before Judge Diehl yesterday. A plea of not guilty was filed for each in default of which they were remanded to the county jail to await their hearing, which begins at 10 a. m. today.

PLAINTIFF IS GIVEN A VERDICT

at 19 a. m. today,

In the case of J. U. Eldredge, Jr., administrator of the estate of High Sherian, deceased, vs. Thomas A. Whalen, administrator of the estate of James Maloy, seesand, Judge Hall decreed that the daintiff, as administrator, was entitled a sigh. The case, which is rather committed at the complex of the case of the Sheridan estate to be effect that a proper inventory had not even made by Maloy, as executor of the estate.

Maloy was executor of the estate of Sheridan and when Maloy died J. U. Eldredge, Jr., was appointed administrator of the Sheridan estate. Thomas A. Whalen is the administrator of Maloy's estate. Maloy, it seems, was made the sole helf of Sheridan and the day before the latter's death he gave Maloy a check for thioo, which was practically everything he had. The plaintiff brought the above action to determine whether the transfer, of the money was considered legal Judge Hall holds that it was and the claim of the creditor cannot therefore be satisfied,

WALTER M'LLOYD GETS SIX YEARS IN PRISON

Walter McLloyd in the criminal division of the District court yesterday morning, pleaded guilty to three informations charging him with entering the houses at tall East Fourth South 182 East Fifth South and 25, South Fourth East, and was sentenced by Judge Morae to a total of six years in the State prison for the three offenses. Nine complaints in all had been registered against him, though on five complaints had been formally made. The passing of sentence upon Henry Waddell, who was found guilty Tuesday of assault with intent to commit murder, and who yesterday morning pleaded guilty before Judge Morse to two informations charging grand larceny and attempting to escape from the penitentiary, was postponed until Saturday at 10 a. 2.
